

Short Walks in the Resort

1> The Aqueduct Trail 🔥 4.8 km

This flat grassy trail is the starting point for many hikes out of Falls Creek. Flanking the Resort's iconic aqueducts, the trail passes through the top of the village & accesses hiking and cross country bike trails.

How do I get there?

Village Bowl - From the tennis courts take the access track by the Eagle Chair line for about 50m. Village - Head to Schuss street at the top of the village and follow Ory's Trail opposite Milch Café. Slalom Plaza - Follow the Falls Express chairlift line to the Last Hoot Bar and turn left onto Wombats Ramble (wide grassy ski run). Continue uphill until the aqueduct trail intersects.

2> Rocky Valley Lake 🔭

Australia's highest lake (1,600m) is perfect for a relaxing walk followed by a picnic, fishing or a dip in the clear blue waters. Rocky Valley is the stage for some of the Resort's most popular Summer events and a great feature of Falls Creek's natural beauty.

How do I get there?

Follow the Aqueduct Trail left (East) from the village as it curves its way into grassy woodland and crosses the Bogong High Plains Rd. The trail then continues on to Rocky Valley Lake. Return via the same path or follow the Walking on Water Trail back to the village.

3> Falls Creek Falls

These picturesque falls are just a short walk from the entrance to the village. Completely scorched by the 2003 bushfires, this area provides a valuable insight into the regenerative ability of the alpine flora with native snowgums, ferns and grasses rapidly restoring the greenery. The falls are a great place for a dip after a long mountain walk.

How do I get there?

From the Gully Carpark head along the main road towards Bogong. After 150m the trail-head descends from the right-hand side of the road via steep steps into the valley. Cross the small bridge until a fork in the road where the right-hand trail leads you to the falls.

4> Wishing Well

This moderate trek brings you to a small pool at the end of the aqueduct, affectionately known as the "Wishing Well". Return from this point or continue along to a viewpoint overlooking Mt Spion Kopje.

How do I get there?

Access the Aqueduct Trail and follow it to the right (West) above the village and past the Village Bowl. It will soon narrow to a single track as you get closer to the Wishing

5> Walking on Water Trail

Take in Falls Creek's renowned Cross Country ski trails, the Nordic Bowl and spectacular panoramic views of Rocky Valley Lake.

How do I get there?

From Slalom Plaza follow the Falls Express lift over the road then turn onto Wombats Ramble. Once you pass the Aqueduct Trail, take the track to the left (East) signposted 'Aitken's Trail'. Follow this until the Pipeline Trail where you turn left and continue until crossing over the McKay/Pretty Valley Road. Follow the markers to the Lake Foreshore and continue looping left over the grassy knoll. Soon you will reach the Bogong High Plains Road - beyond this is the Aqueduct Trail leading home.

6> Home and Away Trail

Experience the Summit ski area as this trail takes you into the High Plains. An optional extra to this trail exists with the Frying Pan Spur Trail. You can also avoid the initial climb by accessing via the Summit Chairlift during its Summer operation (check with Visitor Information for dates)

How do I get there?

Begin your walk at Ory's Trail (enter via Schuss St. opposite Milch Café), continuing uphill past the large brown water tank and onto the old Summit home trail. From there the trail becomes steep and rocky as it winds uphill 1km uphill to the top of the Summit chair, Markers lead you past the ski patrol hut to the end of the first snow fence and then down a gently undulating trail to a T-intersection. Veer right across the rocky plateau and downhill to the "Wishing Well" and Aqueduct Trail return.

Try the 'Frying Pan Spur' Side Trip

For a little more out of your hike, take this extra side trip at the T-interection. Less than a kilometre each way, Frying Pan Spur provides panoramic views of the Kiewa Valley and surrounding mountains.

7> Mountain & Castle Adventure Trail

A great Summer trek, this trail takes you past Sun Valley and some of Falls Creek's most popular ski runs to the base of Mt McKay. Another great feature of this hike is passing the columnar outcrop of basalt rock from which Ruined Castle draws its name

How do I get there?

Begin your walk at Ory's Trail (on Schuss St opposite Milch Café), following it up until you reach the large brown tank containing Falls Creek's water supply. Continue uphill along the vehicle track until it crosses onto the old Summit home trail to where the trail forks. Veer left following the trail markers until you reach Pretty Valley Road. From here head right along the road until you reach the Ruined Castle rock feature. Keep following the winding trail uphill to a vehicle track and across Pretty Valley Road before reaching the base of Mt McKay (1,872m). Follow this road up and you'll be rewarded with spectacular views across to Mt Hotham, Mt Feathertop and Mt Bogong.

National Park Longer Treks in the

1> Wallaces Heritage Trail 6.0 km NED IUM

Wallace's Hut

loop and Rover Chalet to complete the return walk from the road or take in the 6km of these extensions will bring you to the or left to hike to Langfords Gap. Both and turn right to extend to Cope Hut extra exercise, continue along the path Bogong High Plains Rd. Dam wall. A signpost marks the starting approximately 8km past the Rocky Valley Drive along the Bogong High Plains Rd Return via the same path or for some the well-graded track to Wallaces Hut. point where you can park your car. Follow

How do I get there? 1.5 km EASY

Cope Hut

the road the trail entrance on the left hand side of the Wallaces Hut signpost) until you see High Plains Rd for around 10km (2km past Travel past the dam wall on the Bogong junction, then turn right and follow the on to the aqueduct trail and turn right. Bogong High Plains Rd. track to Cope Hut and through to the Look out for Rover Chalet before the T To get there from Wallaces Hut, continue

2> Ropers Lookout

lookout with incredible views of the Resort snowgums beyond the dam wall to a and surrounding Kiewa Valley. Trek the regenerating fire-damaged

How do I get there?

a small gully up to the lookout on a small the aqueduct for 1.5km, climbing through side) to the car park directly after the wall. Rd over the Rocky Valley Dam wall (Eastern Walk or drive along the Bogong High Plains From here follow the grassy trail beside combine this walk with visits to nearby Mt Cope (1837m) is one of the highest easy hike to the peak. You can also peaks in the High Plains and a relatively Wallace's and Cope huts.

3> Mt Cope

How do I get there?

wall to the Mt Cope sign post. The track Drive approximately 11km past the dam starts on the right hand side of the road and returns via the same path.

4> Heathy Spur 3.5 km MED return IUM.

fitness with a challenging climb to Marums Point A 10km return that takes you through alpine damaged by the 2003 and 2006 bushfires. herbfields and regenerating snowgums This trek is ideal for those wishing to test their

How do I get there?

Big River fire track back to the Bogong High climbs to Heathy Spur for 4.5km until the Drive 500m beyond the dam wall to a sign to your starting point. Plains Rd. Turn right and walk 2km to return Australian Alpine Walking Track (AAWT). Turn right along the AAWT and down the marked "Heathy Spur – Mt Nelse". The tracl this road up and you'll be rewarded with brown tank containing Falls Creek's wate Mt Feathertop and Mt Bogong. spectacular views across to Mt Hotham, across Pretty Valley Road before reaching supply. Continue uphill along the vehicle Castle rock feature. Keep following the along the road until you reach the Ruinec Pretty Valley Road. From here head right track until it crosses onto the old Summit the base of Mt McKay (1,872m). Follow winding trail uphill to a vehicle track and following the trail markers until you reach home trail to where the trail forks. Veer lef

